

Jo-Hannah Atchison

Sunday, July 5th, 2026 @ 1:30 pm – 2:15 pm

Jo-Hannah Atchison is a 12-year-old country singer-songwriter living in Portage La Prairie, Manitoba with a voice far beyond her years. Inspired by legendary artists like Dolly Parton, Patsy

Cline, and Loretta Lynn, she brings classic country soul to every performance with her powerful vocals, heartfelt storytelling, and old-school country growl.

Jo-Hannah is a two-time Nova Star Award winner for her work in Disney Jr's Dino Ranch and is also the winner of the Buford “Has What It Takes” 2024 Talent Competition. She was named 2nd Runner-Up in the Manitoba Voice Competition 2025, for her musical abilities.

Performing alongside her family and mentored by CCMA winner and Juno Nominee Thomas Wade, she has quickly become known for her confidence on stage, emotional delivery, and original songs that connect with audiences of all ages.

Whether performing a timeless country classic or one of her own original compositions, Jo-Hannah’s passion for music shines through in every note. Don’t miss the chance to see this rising young performer live at the 154th Portage Ex Fair!

