RE:SOUND is the Canadian not-for-profit music licensing company dedicated to obtaining fair compensation for artists and record companies for their performance rights.

SOCAN (The Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada) is the Canadian copyright collective for music. SOCAN protects the performing and reproduction rights of more than 150,000 songwriters, music publishers, composers, and visual artists

The cost of ENTANDEM fees depends on a range of factors, from where and how the musical work is being performed, the seating capacity and the type of event. Licenses are required by law whether the music is live or played on a tape/CD player, jukebox, video, or karaoke, or a combination of both, and whether the performers are paid or not.

The Portage Industrial Exhibition Association collects the appropriate fees on behalf of ENTANDEM and remits them to ENTANDEM on a quarterly basis. For more information regarding ENTANDEM licensing fees, visit the website at www.entandemlicensing.com, call 1-855-957-6226 or visit the Copyright Board of Canada.
